

Key Stage 2 SATs 2022

Parents' Presentation

Assessment and Reporting

- As of 2014, the 'old' national curriculum levels (e.g. level 3, 4, 5) were abolished as set out in government guidelines.
- The 2014 curriculum is rigorous and sets noticeably higher expectations than previous curricula, which is why all schools have had to work hard to meet and adapt to it since its introduction.
- Since 2016, test scores have been reported as 'scaled scores'.

Scaled Scores

What is meant by 'scaled scores'?

In previous years, 100 was the 'national standard'. As the government are not reporting results this year, we are still unsure as to whether this will remain the same.

Each pupil's raw test score is converted into a score on the scale, either at, above or below 100.

Using the scaled score, the lowest a child can score is 80, with the highest being 120.

A child who achieves the 'national standard' (a score of 100) will be judged to have demonstrated sufficient knowledge in the areas assessed by the tests.

Each pupil receives:

- a raw score (number of raw marks awarded);
- a scaled score in each tested subject;
- confirmation of whether or not they attained the national standard.

A child's awarded below 100 to 80 are judged to have not yet met the national standard and performed below the expectation for their age.

A child awarded a scaled score of 100 is judged to have met the 'national standard' in the area judged by the test;

If a child's score is close to 120, they are working beyond (or above) the expected national standard.

Absence

The government state:

7.5 Absence during the test period

If a pupil is absent and does not return within 5 school days of the scheduled test date, or an application for a timetable variation is rejected, they should be recorded as 'A' (absent) on the test attendance register.

Pupils who do not take all test papers for a subject will receive a score for the papers they have completed but will not receive a scaled score. The overall outcome for a pupil who does not complete all test papers for a subject will be 'A' (absent).
