Online Safety Statement of Intent

At Folksworth, we understand that children need to be equipped with the knowledge, skills and understanding to live and thrive in an increasingly online world. We embrace the use of digital technology in our school for a range of purposes and use the resources available online to enhance our teaching across the curriculum and expand pupils' horizons. We model openness to technology and encourage our pupils to develop their skills in using it.

However, the safety of our pupils is paramount and we have planned our online safety and computing schemes of work to ensure that children develop a thorough understanding of what online resources are available to them and how to use them safely. We want our children to be confident in using appropriate online resources for their current and future needs but also highly resilient and aware of the risks involved and how to approach these. Children are taught to think critically about how they behave online and the potential impact of an online presence. They are encouraged to analyse risk and make decisions to keep themselves and others safe, and where to seek help if necessary.

Through our online safety teaching we aim to educate our pupils about the benefits and risks to being online so that they can use it effectively in their future lives.

Online Safety Progression of Knowledge and Skills

We use UKCCIS Education for a Connected World as a basis for our Online Safety Curriculum and follow the recommended progression statements within this document.

Self-Image and Identity EYFS and KS1

I can recognise, online or offline, that anyone can say 'no' / 'please stop' / 'I'll tell' / 'I'll ask' to somebody who makes them feel sad, uncomfortable, embarrassed or upset.

I can recognise that there may be people online who could make someone feel sad, embarrassed or upset.

If something happens that makes me feel sad, worried, uncomfortable or frightened I can give examples of when and how to speak to an adult I can trust and how they can help.

I can explain how other people may look and act differently online and offline.

I can give examples of issues online that might make someone feel sad, worried, uncomfortable or frightened; I can give examples of how they might get help.

Self-Image and Identity KS2

|---|---|--|---|
| I can explain what is meant by the term 'identity'.   | I can explain how my online identity can be different to my offline identity.   | I can explain how identity online can be copied, modified or altered.                                    | I can identify and critically evaluate online content relating to gender, race, religion, disability, culture and other groups, and explain why it is important to challenge and reject inappropriate representations online. |
| I can explain how people can represent themselves in different ways online.   | I can describe positive ways for someone to interact with others online and understand how this will positively impact on how others perceive them. | I can demonstrate how to make responsible choices about having an online identity, depending on context. | I can describe issues online that could make anyone feel sad, worried, uncomfortable or frightened. I know and can give examples of how to get help, both on and offline.   |
| I can explain ways in which someone might change their identity depending on what they are doing online (e.g. gaming; using an avatar ; social media) and why. | I can explain that others online can pretend to be someone else, including my friends, and can suggest reasons why they might do this.              |  | I can explain the importance of asking until I get the help needed.   |

"The more that you read, the more things you will know. The more that you learn, the more places you'll go." — Dr. Seuss,

Online Relationships EYFS and KS1

|--|---|--|
| I can recognise some ways in which the internet can be used to communicate.            | I can give examples of when I should ask permission to do something online and explain why this is important.   | I can give examples of how someone might use technology to communicate with others they don't also know offline and explain why this might be risky. (e.g. email, online gaming, a pen-pal in another school / country). |
| I can give examples of how I (might) use technology to communicate with people I know. | I can use the internet with adult support to communicate with people I know (e.g. video call apps or services). | I can explain who I should ask before sharing things about myself or others online.  |
|  | I can explain why it is important to be considerate and kind to people online and to respect their choices.     | I can describe different ways to ask for, give, or deny my permission online and can identify who can help me if I am not sure.  |
|  | I can explain why things one person finds funny or sad online may not always be seen in the same way by others. | I can explain why I have a right to say 'no' or 'I will have to ask someone'. I can explain who can help me if I feel under pressure to agree to something I am unsure about or don't want to do.                        |
|  |   | I can identify who can help me if something happens online without my consent.   |
|  |   | I can explain how it may make others feel if I do not ask their permission or ignore their answers before sharing something about them online.   |
|  |   | I can explain why I should always ask a trusted adult before clicking 'yes', 'agree' or 'accept' online.   |

"The more that you read, the more things you will know. The more that you learn, the more places you'll go." — Dr. Seuss,

A cord of three strands is not easily broken.' Ecclesiastes 4:12
Inspiring a love of learning through the bonds of family, faith and friendship.

Online Relationships KS2

|   |  |  |  |
|---|--|--|--|
| I can describe ways people who have similar likes and interests can get together online.  | I can describe strategies for safe and fun experiences in a range of online social environments (e.g. livestreaming , gaming platforms).  | I can give examples of technology-specific forms of communication (e.g. emojis , memes and GIFs ).  | I can explain how sharing something online may have an impact either positively or negatively.   |
| I can explain what it means to 'know someone' online and why this might be different from knowing someone offline.  | I can give examples of how to be respectful to others online and describe how to recognise healthy and unhealthy online behaviours.              | I can explain that there are some people I communicate with online who may want to do me or my friends harm. I can recognise that this is not my / our fault.  | I can describe how to be kind and show respect for others online including the importance of respecting boundaries regarding what is shared about them online and how to support them if others do not.                        |
| I can explain what is meant by 'trusting someone online', why this is different from 'liking someone online', and why it is important to be careful about who to trust online including what information and content they are trusted with. | I can explain how content shared online may feel unimportant to one person but may be important to other people's thoughts feelings and beliefs. | I can describe some of the ways people may be involved in online communities and describe how they might collaborate constructively with others and make positive contributions. (e.g. gaming communities or social media groups). | I can describe how things shared privately online can have unintended consequences for others. e.g. screen-grabs .  |
| I can explain why someone may change their mind about trusting anyone with something if they feel nervous, uncomfortable or worried.  |  | I can explain how someone can get help if they are having problems and identify when to tell a trusted adult.  | I can explain that taking or sharing inappropriate images of someone (e.g. embarrassing images), even if they say it is okay, may have an impact for the sharer and others; and who can help if someone is worried about this. |
| I can explain how someone's feelings can be hurt by what is said or written online.   |  | I can demonstrate how to support others (including those who are having difficulties) online.  |  |
| I can explain the importance of giving and gaining permission before sharing things online; how the principles of sharing online is the same as sharing offline e.g. sharing images and videos.   |  |  |  |

Managing Online Information EYFS and KS1

|  |   |   |
| I can talk about how to use the internet as a way of finding information online. | I can give simple examples of how to find information using digital technologies, e.g. search engines, voice activated searching ).                            | I can use simple keywords in search engines .  |
| I can identify devices I could use to access information on the internet.        | I know / understand that we can encounter a range of things online including things we like and don't like as well as things which are real or make believe / a joke. | I can demonstrate how to navigate a simple webpage to get to information I need (e.g. home, forward, back buttons; links, tabs and sections).     |
|  | I know how to get help from a trusted adult if we see content that makes us feel sad, uncomfortable worried or frightened.                                     | I can explain what voice activated searching is and how it might be used, and know it is not a real person (e.g. Alexa, Google Now, Siri). |
|  |   | I can explain the difference between things that are imaginary, 'made up' or 'make believe' and things that are 'true' or 'real'.                 |
|  |   | I can explain why some information I find online may not be real or true.   |

"The more that you read, the more things you will know. The more that you learn, the more places you'll go." — Dr. Seuss,

Managing Online Information KS2

|  |  |  |   |
|--|--|--|---|
| I can demonstrate how to use key phrases in search engines to gather accurate information online.  | I can analyse information to make a judgement about probable accuracy and I understand why it is important to make my own decisions regarding content and that my decisions are respected by others.           | I can explain the benefits and limitations of using different types of search technologies e.g. voice-activation search engine. I can explain how some technology can limit the information I aim presented with e.g. voice-activated searching giving one result. | I can explain how search engines work and how results are selected and ranked.  |
| I can explain what autocomplete is and how to choose the best suggestion.   | I can describe how to search for information within a wide group of technologies and make a judgement about the probable accuracy (e.g. social media, image sites, video sites).                               | I can explain what is meant by 'being sceptical '; I can give examples of when and why it is important to be 'sceptical'.   | I can explain how to use search technologies effectively.   |
| I can explain how the internet can be used to sell and buy things.   | I can describe some of the methods used to encourage people to buy things online (e.g. advertising offers; in-app purchases , pop-ups ) and can recognise some of these when they appear online. | I can evaluate digital content and can explain how to make choices about what is trustworthy e.g. differentiating between adverts and search results.  | I can describe how some online information can be opinion and can offer examples.   |
| I can explain the difference between a 'belief', an 'opinion' and a 'fact' and can give examples of how and where they might be shared online, e.g. in videos, memes, posts, news stories etc. | I can explain why lots of people sharing the same opinions or beliefs online do not make those opinions or beliefs true.   | I can explain key concepts including: information, reviews, fact, opinion, belief, validity, reliability and evidence.   | I can explain how and why some people may present 'opinions' as 'facts'; why the popularity of an opinion or the personalities of those promoting it does not necessarily make it true, fair or perhaps even legal. |
| I can explain that not all opinions shared may be accepted as true or fair by others (e.g. monsters under the bed).  | I can explain that technology can be designed to act like or impersonate living things (e.g. bots ) and describe what the benefits and the risks might be.  | I can identify ways the internet can draw us to information for different agendas, e.g. website notifications, pop-ups , targeted ads.  | I can define the terms 'influence', 'manipulation' and 'persuasion' and explain how someone might encounter these online (e.g. advertising and ' ad targeting ' and targeting for fake news ).        |
| I can describe and demonstrate how we can get help from a trusted adult if we see content that makes us feel sad, uncomfortable worried or frightened.   | I can explain what is meant by fake news e.g. why some people will create stories or alter photographs and put them online to pretend something is true when it isn't.                                  |  | I understand the concept of persuasive design and how it can be used to influence peoples' choices.  |

'A cord of three strands is not easily broken.' Ecclesiastes 4:12
Inspiring a love of learning through the bonds of family, faith and friendship.

I can describe ways of identifying when online content has been commercially sponsored or boosted, (e.g. by commercial companies or by vloggers, content creators, influencers).

I can explain what is meant by the term 'stereotype', how 'stereotypes' are amplified and reinforced online, and why accepting 'stereotypes' may influence how people think about others.

I can describe how fake news may affect someone's emotions and behaviour, and explain why this may be harmful.

I can explain what is meant by a 'hoax'.
I can explain why someone would need to think carefully before they share.

I can demonstrate how to analyse and evaluate the validity of 'facts' and information and I can explain why using these strategies are important.

I can explain how companies and news providers target people with online news stories they are more likely to engage with and how to recognise this.

I can describe the difference between on-line misinformation and dis-information.

I can explain why information that is on a large number of sites may still be inaccurate or untrue. I can assess how this might happen (e.g. the sharing of misinformation or disinformation).

I can identify, flag and report inappropriate content.

Health, Wellbeing and Lifestyle EYFS and KS1

I can identify rules that help keep us safe and healthy in and beyond the home when using technology.

I can give some simple examples of these rules.

I can explain rules to keep myself safe when using technology both in and beyond the home.

I can explain simple guidance for using technology in different environments and settings e.g. accessing online technologies in public places and the home environment.

I can say how those rules / guides can help anyone accessing online technologies.
