MISS NORBURY'S INTERVIEW

Miss Norbury's interview

On Tuesday the 21st January 2020 we interviewed our Head teacher, Miss Norbury, and the answers were very interesting! Read on to see what she said!

Q. Why did you choose this school? A. I have worked in big and small schools. I like small schools better because I can get to know everyone

Q. What is it like being a Head teacher? A. It's very busy but I am not sure what happens next.

Q. Do you ever get bored being a Head teacher? A. Not yet. I am too busy to get bored.

Q. Do you ever get nervous before big assemblies? A. Yes. Especially when adults are watching me.

Q. Are there any changes that you have made to our school that you regret? A. Not any that I regret but some are hard to put in place.

Q. Are there any changes you want to make but are scared to because you think nobody will like it? A. No. I wouldn't do it if no one will like it.

Q. Are some meetings you go to fun? A. NO! When you go you always end up with more work!

Q. Do you enjoy your work? A. Yes because I feel proud when I make a change and people like it!

Q. What do you think about all the staff? A. They are fabulous, hardworking and supportive.

Recipe

Spiced Apple Tray Bake:

Ingredients:

225g butter (room temperature) plus extra for greasing,

550g cooking apples,

Juice of $\frac{1}{2}$ a lemon,

225g light muscovado sugar,

2 tsp baking powder,

300g self-rising flour,

4 large eggs,

1 tsp ground cinnamon,

sugar, eggs, vanilla, flour and baking sugar into a large bowl and mix well until smooth. Spread half the mixture into the prepared tin.

Arrange half the apples over the top of the mixture, then mix the layers. Sprinkle over the demerara sugar.

Bake for 45-50 minutes until golden and springy to the touch. Leave to cool for 10

Instructions:

Heat the oven to 180c/ fan 160c/ gas 4. Butter and line a rectangular cake tin (approx. 27 cm x 20 cm) with parchment paper. Peel, core and thinly slice the apples then squeeze on the lemon juice. Set to one side.

Place the butter, caster

Bake for 45-50 minutes until golden and springy to the touch. Leave to cool for 10 minutes then turn out of tin and remove paper. cut into bars or squares
